TBF's requested extension should not be granted because it has not demonstrated good cause for a further extension of time. Under Section 1.46(a) of the Commission's rules, extensions of time are not routinely granted. "In ruling on any extension requests that may be filed under the §1.46(a) standard, the Review Board and the Commission will closely examine the pleadings to determine whether the request is based on a clear showing of good cause." Proposals to Reform the Commission's Comparative Hearing Process to Expedite the Resolution of Cases, 6 FCC Rcd 157, 192 n.34 (1990). TBF's request does not meet that standard.

Glendale filed its petition to deny on December 27, 1991. Section 73.3584(b) of the Commission's rules provided TBF with thirty days (as opposed to the normal ten days) to file an opposition. TBF has already filed one extension request (which Glendale does not oppose). The justifications offered for a second extension are the travel schedule of TBF's President, Paul F. Crouch and that TBF has retained co-counsel which will have an documents that it wishes counsel to review have previously been seen by TBF's principals and counsel. Indeed, the majority of those documents were prepared or executed by representatives of Trinity Broadcasting Network or National Minority TV, Inc. Since TBF has not made a "clear showing of good cause", its request must be denied.

Accordingly, Glendale asks the Commission to deny TBF's "Further Motion for Extension of Time".
